Letter from the Editor

Hi, everyone. The Journal Team put together the Fall issue with a focus on WWI. This, to mark the centennial of America's entry into that war. As such, Tormod B. Engvig provides an in-depth study into the Battle of Jutland from the German perspective in "Not to Lose the War in an Afternoon: the Battle of Jutland in German Context." Roger Greezicki discusses the effects of the Treaty of Versailles and the Washington Treaty on the Royal Navy in "Back me or Sack Me." If the Cold War is of interest then see Erickson Huertas's evaluation of both past and present United States and Russian relations in "Brinkmanship Between Great Powers: US and Russia." For members in the Southeast or those planning a visit, Jim Werbaneth provided a review of The Airborne and Special Operations Museum in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

The WWI theme continues in the book review section of this issue. Tormod B. Engvig reviewed The Kaiser's Battlefleet: German Capital Ships 1871-1918. Jeff Ballard reviewed Company K. Chris Booth reviewed The Coast Guard in WWI: An Untold Story and Bill Hanson reviewed The Great War in Africa: 1914-1918. If WWII is a favorite topic then see Robert Smith's review of Germany and the Second World War: Volume VIII: The Eastern Front 1943-1944: The War in the East and on the Neighbouring Fronts and The Allies Strike Back 1941-1943: The War in the West. Also see Tormod B. Engvig's review of Reporting the Second World War.
